

Workshop Plan
Time: 19 to 28 Oct 2021 in Lisbon
Objective: 1: adapt existing and create new modules with technical inputs ready to be taken forward by the respective universities
Objective 2: respond to needs in terms of pedagogical strategies and teaching methodologies including applied research for delivery of capstone reports
Day	19/out	20/out	21/out	22/out	Saturday	Sunday	25/out	26/out	27/out	28/out
Theme	Setting the Scene	Structure of New Module	Research and areas of expertise	Structure of Adaptation	Field trip	Reading	Pedagogical Skill Day	Pedagogical Skill Day	Fieldwork Day	Integration day / Wrap up
Focus / Content	Setting the Scene: General overview of HA concepts / Pedagogical Dimension	New Module development	Camoos Conference	individual module and experts work in small groups to adapt the module. Plenary review / share					One day field trip to see first hand preparation and planning for emergencies	Combine pedagogical strategies and technical skills / Strategise on next modules. Reflect on specialisations and identify building blocks for the future. Lesson learnt from this workshop
Methodology	plenary and work groups	Group work	Participants	plenary and workgroups					participatory field work	plenary and group work
Objective of the day	Increase understanding of core concepts in HA: establish key points. Pedagogical dimension instilled in participants	To establish basic outlines for new modules to be taught	opportunity to bring discussion from project group to the conference: e.g. areas of specialisation what are the trends and the potential and get commitment	To refine and finish the adaptation of the modules					Gain insights into HA at work	Understand how and where to improve for the next workshop and work towards a strategic and coherent HA outline across universities
				Dinner						